DAY 2

Today we want to acknowledge that we are currently living and learning on the traditional territory of the Musqueam, Squamish and Coast Salish first peoples. Today is National Indigenous day - where we recognize and celebrate the cultures and contributions of the First Nations, Inuit and Métis Indigenous peoples in Canada. There are many events happening around the lower mainland today. For a list of what's happening, please check out the poster in front of student services!

BULLDOGS READ CONTEST FINAL NEWS

We have 2 winning readers this week who have won Chapters gift cards: Alexei Villareal read and reviewed the most Bulldogs Read books and the final weekly winner is Maya Bodzanowski. Come to the library to collect your prizes! Thanks to all the readers and reviewers who participated in the Bulldogs Read contest!

PLAYLAND

Playland is hiring for the Fair at the PNE happening in August. If you are interested and want more information please go to student services.

LOST AND FOUND

Check out the table in front of the office for any lost and found items. Anything left over today will be donated or thrown out.

NUMERACY ASSESSMENT

Any Grade 11 student that took Math last semester and would like to write the Numeracy Assessment this year, please see Ms. Sortome ASAP. Check the schedule posted beside the elevators.

GRADE 12 EXAMS

The English 12 and Communications 12 exam schedule has been posted outside the elevators in the Atrium. Please check it to know what time and where you will be writing them.

WELL DONE BULLDOGS!! YOU MADE IT!! HAVE A SAFE, RELAXING, FUN FILLED SUMMER!!
